

Illinois Mental Health Counselors Association

a state branch of the American Mental Health Counselors Association a division of the Illinois Counseling Association

Dear Graduate Student,

The Illinois Mental Health Counselors Association is offering a graduate student scholarship to our 21st Annual Conference on April 15-16, 2010, in Oak Brook, Illinois. Thursday will be an all day presentation by Dr. James Garbarino, Ph.D., called Pathways from Childhood Trauma to Adolescent Violence. Friday will include workshops on a variety of topics. The application for the scholarship is due by March 15, 2010. Recipients will be notified on March 17, 2010. A copy of the application is at our website: www.imhca.org.

Please contact us via email at imhca@imhca.org or call (800) 493-4424 with questions.

The scholarship includes:
registration fees for 2 days lunch on Thursday and Friday and 1 night hotel stay.

Sincerely,

Daniel Stasi
Executive Director